

Decorate Your Airplane with a Unique Design

Fill In the Blanks

Amelia was born in _____ on July __, 18__. Amelia saw her first _____ in Iowa at the State _____. When Amelia was __ years old she attended _____ School. Her teachers said Amelia was ____, _____, a good _____ and a practical _____. During Amelia's second year she was elected _____ of her class. The class motto she wrote was, "H____ is the _____ of _____." During the First _____ War, Amelia quit school to _____ at a hospital in _____, Canada. After the war, Amelia had a hard time deciding what _____ she wanted to pursue.

On _____ Day in 19__ she witnessed an ____ _____. Three days later, at _____ Field, she went on her first _____ ride. Those 10 minutes inspired Amelia to become a _____. Amelia trained with _____ Snook. Amelia bought her first plane and named it _____. Amelia officially became a pilot on December __, 19__, when she took her _____ test.

Amelia's second teacher was _____ Montijo. He had flown in the army and was a _____ pilot in movies. Amelia's first record was for height, she _____ 14 thousand feet high.

Amelia's first time across the _____ Ocean she rode as a passenger with Wilmer _____. The flight was __ hours and 40 minutes. When Amelia returned she was a _____ with a new nickname, Lady _____. Amelia, along with other female pilots worked hard to get approval to fly the Women's Air Derby, over the _____ Mountains, without a male _____. After the derby a group of women pilots created a club. They called the club the _____-_____. Amelia served as the _____ president of the group.

During the Great _____, Amelia helped provide for both of her parents. She kept busy by giving _____ and helped _____ an Airline. When she began there was only a _____ cities with airports which created challenges for _____. In 19____, Amelia set 3 new _____ records. During the fall of 1930 Amelia's father passed away from _____. The following _____ Amelia married George Putnam.

By 19____, wood-framed airplanes were replaced with _____-metal frames. Flight was becoming more and more common. With _____ female pilots in the US, Amelia needed to try something different. The _____ was her next challenge. She flew in across the _____ and back but soon went back to flying a regular plane. On May __, 19____ Amelia left _____, Canada to cross the Atlantic _____. The flight was challenging but she made it! When she returned to the States she received an award from President Herbert _____. Amelia became active in politics and joined the National Women's Party. Her activity led her to _____ designing. January 1935 took Amelia on another record breaking flight, she left _____ and landed in _____.

Amelia wanted to fly around the globe, close to the _____, which was 29,000 miles long. She needed a new plane for the trip. Electra, was a new _____ model. After some refurbishing the plane was able to fly _____ thousand miles before they needed to stop. Learning how to fly this new plane and make the preparations took Amelia months. She had two navigators to help her on her journey. Unfortunately there was an _____ just off of Honolulu. The plane was badly damaged and took _____ months until it was ready to fly. One navigator was unable to continue which left only _____ . The trip started well and they flew over 40 _____ and _____ thousand miles during their first week. On July __, there was only 7,000 miles left on her trip. She left New Guinea for Howland Island, where she planned to _____. During the _____ the Coast Guards heard short messages from her on the radio but Amelia could not hear them. At _____ her final message came through the radio. Right away a rescue mission started with more than _____ thousand men on _____ ships searching the ocean. Later 65 _____ joined the search. Amelia Earhart and Fred Noonan were _____ found. People are still searching for the answer to the mysterious _____ of Amelia and her plane. Amelia didn't just fly _____ and break _____ she _____ doors for women.

Key:

Chapter 1

Atchinson, Kansas, July 24, 1897.
Airplane, Fair

Chapter 2

19, Ogontz
Shy, charming, athlete, girl
Vicepresident
Honor is the foundation of courage

Chapter 3

World, work, Toronto
Career
Christmas, 1920
Rogers, plane
Pilot
Neta
Canary
15, 21, license

Chapter 4

Monte
stunt flew

Chapter 5

atlantic, stultz
20
hero, lady lindy
Rocky, navigator
Ninety-Nines
First

Chapter 6

Depression
Speeches, start
Few, people
1930, speed
Cancer
February

Chapter 7

31, all
450, autogyro
Country
20, 32, Newfoundland, alone
Hoover
fashion
Honolulu, California

Chapter 8

Equator
Lockheed
Three
accident
Two
Fred Noonan
Hours, four 2
Refuel
Night
8:45
Four, ten
Airplanes
Never Disappearance
Planes, records, opened

Navigation Challenge

Navigation Code:

1. Fly 2 squares North
2. Fly 3 squares Northeast
3. Fly 3 squares East
4. Fly 1 square Southeast
5. Fly 1 square South
6. Fly 1 square Southwest
7. Fly 1 square West
8. Fly 3 squares Northwest
9. Fly 2 squares North
10. Fly 1 square Northeast
11. Fly 1 square East
12. Fly 1 square Northeast
13. Fly 2 squares East
14. You have arrived at your destination

Print this postcard and write about your last adventure, as if you were Amelia Earhart.

Amelia Earhart

Adventerous

Airplane

Amelia

Atlantic

Brave

Canary

Earhart

Electra

Fashion

Flight

Friendship

Lost

Mystery

Ocean

Pacific

Pilot

Smart

Woman